5th February 2025

To whom it may concern

From 13th December 2024 the new General Product Safety Regulation (Regulation (EU) 2023/988 – GPSR) will become applicable to most non-food products sold offline and online across our brands.

This regulation has binding legal force throughout every Member state in the EU and replaces the previous General Product Safety Directive.

In compliance with this regulation, I hereby appoint –

Regatta Polska sp z.o.o.
Ul. Częstochowska 5
32-085 Modlinica
POLAND

as our Authorized representative and responsible person in the European Union for product safety and we allow them to perform the following tasks in relation to the General Product Safety Regulation and compliance of all products bearing the brand names listed above -

- Keep all Technical documentation at the disposal of enforcement and market surveillance authorities for 10 years – for example - Product risk assessments, CE certificates and any documents relating to the safety of our products.
- Further to any reasonable requests from enforcement and market surveillance authorities, to be the point of contact in the EU to provide that authority with all product safety compliance information and documentation in reference to demonstrate its safety and compliance.
- To co-operate with the enforcement or market surveillance authority, at its request, on any action required to eliminate the risks identified.
- In addition, where possible - labelling or packaging on our products will now contain the address and will also be advised across all EU websites as our authorised representative/ responsible person in the EU.
- To advise end consumers on any product safety and/or compliance issues raised.

Yours faithfully,

Majid Khan
